

Dear AASB,

It has come to my notice that Tier 2 organisations do not have to report the fees paid to their auditors for other services.

This is clearly contrary to good and open disclosure of relationship between the auditors and the public who see the accounts .

A hypothetical example an audit fee of $100k and other services of say $1 million or more .I think any ordinary person deserves to have this information in the Accounts and not hidden .